Anthony A. Raspa

Anthony A. Raspa died on Saturday May 30, 2015 while patrolling route I-195 for the NJ State Police, at the age of 24. In college he was a member of the National Leadership Honor Society – a true born leader. His family, friends and community will remember him for his genuine smile, loyalty and devotion to community service. Highland Park was Anthony's home for most of his life and now it is here that we will remember him for the service he died for.
